has further pledged that efforts will continue to save the remaining pre-Islamic artifacts in Afghanistan. To this end, the DG has appealed to dealers, collaborators and Member States to fight against the traffic in Afghan cultural properties and drawn attention to the colligation of State Parties under the 1970 UNESCO Convention on the means of prohibiting and preventing the illicit import, export and traffic in ownership of cultural property. UNESCO has also opened a Special Fund for Safeguarding of Afghanistan's Cultural Heritage.
